HAVE YOU SEEN THE SYNERGY WEB SITE LATELY?

Synergy has a cutting edge website. Not only do we keep you up to date on everything going on at the studio but we also offer you movies and dance history. All of this is due to my amazing brother and his company Taylor Design Studios. Jeff does all the artwork, logo's, flyers and any other marketing documents I need for Synergy. He's always coming up with new ideas for the site to keep it fresh and informative. We are so lucky to have him... Thanks Jeff!
